

Thea Soule

Chief Commercial Officer

Dorothea “Thea” Soule joined Ecobat in October 2020 as Chief Commercial Officer.

Thea has 15 years of experience in the commodities sector focused on investments and divestments, risk management, capital structure and allocations, process improvement, and supply chain system implementation.

Prior to Ecobat, she led commercial, procurement, and cane origination teams at Biosev, a Louis Dreyfus Company, from 2014 to 2020. Her role focused on driving sales and purchasing strategies, creating arbitrage opportunities, and implementing price risk management practices.

Prior to her work at Biosev, she was head of the commercial desk at Adecoagro, a sugar, ethanol, and electric energy producer in Brazil.

She has a B.S. in Neuroscience from Lafayette College and an MBA from Kellogg School of Management.
